

Preparing for the 2020 Statutory Changes to Secondary Relationships and Health Education

1 day course - Friday 9th October 2020

4.5 hours online input live and up to 2.5-3 hours of pre recorded workshops

Secondary School Teachers • Secondary PSHE/Wellbeing Leads • Secondary Senior Leaders •
Secondary Headteachers • Secondary link governors for PSHE/Wellbeing

Throughout this, not to be missed, one day course we will delve further into the new statutory framework, helping teachers and leaders to be prepared for the changes.

What will we focus on?

- The role of the subject leader for RSHE
- Parents/carers as partners - requirements and best practice
- Curriculum content (changing adolescent body and sex education)
- Ofsted, teaching the law, and assessment
- Policy requirements

What will participants take away?

- Activities to implement instantly in school
- Ideas for in house CPD opportunities
- Policy checklist to meet the new statutory requirements
- An awareness of parent concerns nationally and how to address these

About the presenters

Karin Hutchinson –Lead Wellbeing Adviser

Karin Hutchinson has trained across all phases country-wide for over 20 years. Her work is rooted in partnership, equality, positive psychology and solutions focused support. Karin is currently the lead wellbeing adviser at Herts for Learning where she leads, training support and policy review. Karin is working closely with 1decision to deliver training to secondary provisions around the changes to the new relationship and health education curriculum which becomes statutory in September 2020.

Kate Stockdale – Wellbeing Adviser HfL

Kate Stockdale has held leadership roles in Hertfordshire and inner London primary schools. She is a highly respected adviser, consultant and trainer, with a passion for wellbeing, inclusion and equalities. Kate is currently a wellbeing adviser with Herts for Learning and leads, training support and policy review. Kate is working closely with 1decision to deliver training to secondary provisions around the changes to the new relationship and health education curriculum which becomes statutory in September 2020.

To book your place on this course, please visit: <https://1decision.co/Secondary9October>