

Preparing for the 2020 Statutory Changes to Primary Relationships and Health Education

1 day course - Thursday 23rd January 2020
Marriott Hotel, Preston, 9am - 4pm.

Primary School Teachers • Primary PSHE/Wellbeing Leads • Primary Senior Leaders •
Primary Headteachers • Primary link governors for PSHE/Wellbeing

Throughout this, not to be missed, one day course we will delve further into the new statutory framework, helping teachers and leaders to be prepared for the changes.

What will we focus on?

- The reasons behind the changes
- The new statutory learning objectives and how these can be taught in a cross curricular way
- Creating a policy
- Parental views and concerns and how to support discussions with key stakeholder groups
- Available resources to support practitioners to ensure all schools are equipped for the #2020vision

What will participants take away?

- Activities to implement instantly in school
- Ideas for in house CPD opportunities
- Policy checklist to meet the new statutory requirements
- An awareness of parent concerns nationally and how to address these

About the presenter

Sarah Stevens has worked in education for the past 14 years, with 9 of these years being in primary headship. She is currently working as an education consultant supporting schools with the introduction of the new relationship and health education statutory framework, which is due to be implemented September 2020.

Sarah has been a headteacher in two schools in the UK. One, an outstanding school, leading in Values Education and Early Years provision. The second, a school which required rapid improvement. Under Sarah's leadership, this was achieved within 12 months with Ofsted rating the school as good and SIAMS as outstanding.
