

What are the British Values?

Definition -

We treat others as we want to be treated.

All people are included, whatever their faith may be.

