

Progress Moments

Name / Class:

Amelia

Date:

26 May 2026

Progress Made:

During today's PSHE lesson on teamwork and communication, Amelia showed excellent resilience and confidence. At the start of the activity, she was hesitant to share her ideas with her group. However, after encouragement from her peers, she began contributing thoughtful suggestions and helped resolve a disagreement calmly and respectfully. By the end of the lesson, Amelia volunteered to present the group's final ideas to the class, demonstrating a noticeable increase in self confidence and leadership skills.

Other Information:

This was a significant moment for Amelia as she has previously struggled with speaking in front of others. Her classmates responded positively and praised her contribution. Suggested next step is to continue encouraging leadership opportunities during collaborative activities to help build confidence further.
